Gandhi Peace Prize 2017

The award is given to Ekal Abhyani Trust for its Contribution to education for rural and tribal children in remote areas across India, with gender and social equality.

Education is a strong means to empowerment and Ekal Abhyani Trust is working in remote areas, so that children from tribal families get the opportunity to study.

Their role in furthering women empowerment is laudatory. Congratulations to them for the Gandhi Peace Prize 2017!
