A BETTER FUTURE STARTS WITH EDUCATING EVERY CHILD

EKAL'S MISSION IS INDIA'S MISSION.

Today, Ekal operates over 97,000 one-teacher schools that provide free education to 2.5 million children all over India. But there is much more work to do, and there are 13.5 million children we have not yet reached. With your help, we can achieve our goal of eradicating illiteracy in India which will open the doors to a far better future for all of India – one where prosperity is universal, where healthy communities thrive, and where India accelerates its rise onto the world stage. When you support Ekal, you're supporting India's future.
